MUSIC CENTER . . . Ground breaking ceremonies for Wallichs' Music City Torrance store will be held Wednesday morning at 10 at the corner of Artesia and Hawthorne boulevards. City and store officials will join singers Robert Goulet and Johnny Prophet to turn the first shovel of dirt. Construction will begin at once. The Torrance store is the first of four new stores to be built in the greater Los Angeles basin.

New Theater To Conduct Name Contest

California Sterling Theaters, theater in the Rolling Hills now building a 1,000-seat Plaza, is conducting a "Name the Theater" contest. The new facility is scheduled to open Sept. 15.

The contest is open to all residents of the southwest area, and the winner will receive a one-year pass to the theater. All participants will also receive one free pass. In case of ties, each entry will receive a one-year pass.

Nat Levine, resident manager of the new movie house, reported the newest equipment available will be installed in the theater. It will feature first run movies, and is located in an easy-to-get-to place.

The contest will close July 3. All entries should be addressed to Name the Theater Contest, Box 142, The Torrance Herald, 1619 Gramercy, Torrance.

Obituaries

HAMLET JOHNSON

Funeral services for Hamlet Johnson, 78, of Long Beach were held yesterday afternoon at the Stone and Myers Chapel. The Rev. Mr. W. Korneyg officiated at the rites.

Mr. Johnson had lived in the area for 38 years. He died Monday afternoon.

Survivors include a brother, Carl of Torrance; three sisters; and a brother in northern California.

Interment was at Pacific Crest Cemetery.

BIRL BARNETT

Funeral services for Birl Barnett, 81, of 2809 Via Del Miro, Miraleste, will be held Tuesday afternoon at the Stone and Myers Chapel at 2 p.m.

He had lived in the area for eight years. He died Wednesday in Modesto.

Interment will be in Roosevelt Cemetery.

American S & L Retains Rates

American Savings and Loan Assn. will continue its 4.8 percent per annum interest rate for savings for the quarter starting July 1.

Torrance Firm Gets $3 Million Army Contract

Congressman Alphonzo Bell announced in Washington Friday afternoon that a $3,172,100 contract had been awarded to Harvey Aluminum Sales, Inc.

The contract was awarded by the Department of the Army for load 105mm artillery ammunition and demolition. Plant officials at the Torrance facility of Harvey said the contract was for work done outside California.

Leaking Gas Closes Street

A natural gas leak on Madrona Avenue near Sepulveda Boulevard closed the street to traffic yesterday about noon. Traffic on Sepulveda backed up slightly while police closed Madrona Avenue to all traffic.

Southern California Gas Co. workmen arrived on the scene and shut off leaking line. One official said the line was not used, and no interruption in service in the area occurred while repairs were made.

Daughter Finds Body Of Father

A 51-year-old man scheduled to appear in court Friday for arraignment on a drunk driving charge apparently committed suicide Wednesday.

Dead is Claude H. Morton, 23869 Madison Ave., apt. 2. His body was found hanging from a ceiling beam of a shed in the back of his daughter's Lawndale home. Kathy Morton, 20, of 4731 W. 171st St., discovered the body.

Sheriff's deputies said Miss Morton told them her father was despondent about his wife's illness and his scheduled court appearance.

Lectures On Music Planned

Eugene Minor, director of music at Pacific Unitarian Church, will conduct a music lecture series at the home of Mrs. Eloise Goodwin, 5203 Ruby St. The series will begin June 26.

The eight-week lecture series will meet each Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. It will include a resume of baroque, classical and romantic periods; a study of the works of Mozart; and a study of the music of Gilbert and Sullivan. William Grant-ham will conduct the final session with a lecture on contemporary music.

Persons interested in attending the lectures should call FR 1-2664 or FR 5-1926 to register. There will be a 50 cent fee for each session.

Play Tryouts Start Monday

Readings will be held at Chapel Theatre, 4164 Pacific Coast Hwy., at 8 p.m. Monday and Tuesday for the "Five Finger Exercise."

The production will be shown five weekends, beginning Aug. 30. It is directed by Paul Kaufman.

Roles available are the mother, father, teenage son, and 14-year-old daughter.

New Works Featured in Artists Show

New paintings of James Hester will be presented in a one-man show at the Artists Co-op Gallery in Manhattan Beach beginning today.

Hester, widely known painter and teacher in the southwest area, recently won a jury award at the Madonna Festival. He also placed second in the annual South Bay Art Assn. festival.

The gallery, located at 216 Manhattan Beach Blvd., is open from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily except Sunday, and until 10 p.m. on Friday.
